

BUSINESS PULSE

TERESA OOI

HELPING HAND SYDNEY MAY 17

Guests were touched when they were told that John Brogden was in hospital with depression. "The good news is that he is on the mend and we expect to see him out and about soon," Brogden's wife Lucinda told the packed gathering at Lifeline's lunch this week. Mr Brogden is Lifeline's chairman. Buildcorp's Josephine and Tony Sukkar donated $150,000 to Lifeline.

Meanwhile, 180 guests turned up at the Australian Indigenous Education Foundation launch including the Prime Minister's wife, Lucy Turnbull, Credit Suisse chairman John O'Sullivan, KPMG partner Catherine Hunter, Quick Service Restaurant CEO Rob Coombe, HSBC CEO Martin Tricaud, AIEF chairman Warren Mundine and executive director Andrew Penfold.

Who's Who: 1. Martin Tricaud & Warren Mundine 2. Andrew Penfold & Lucy Turnbull 3. Lucinda Brogden & Josephine Sukkar 4. John O'Sullivan, Catherine Hunter and Rob Coombe.